

Iroquois Territory

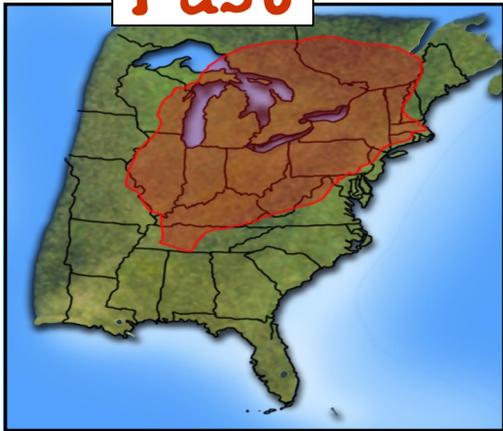

Past and Present

Fill out map on second page and cut this out and use as a cover page on the outside of your book or make your own cover.

Woodlands (Iroquois) | Plains Indians
 Coastal Indians | Desert Indians

Past

Present

Label the map above to show which region each Native American lived.

Answer key: From west to east Coastal Indians, Desert Indians, Plains Indians and Woodlands Indians (Iroquois). You can also label some of the other features such as the Oceans. Label the Mississippi River that is placed on the map as it is the natural barrier between the Woodlands and Plains Indians. Color the map if you choose. On the bottom maps, write a brief description below each picture of the territory that the Iroquois influenced past and present. Go to our website to read about the boundaries.