

Names to Know

Pacal II

Pic att.

Lady
Xok
&
Shield
Jaguar
the Great

Pic att.

John
Lloyd
Stephens

Charles
V.
King of Spain

Research about each person in Maya history. Cut out book and staple on left. Here is a little information to aid you in your research.

Pacal II, is also known as Pacal the Great or K'inich Janahb' Pakal. Pacal II may be the most famous Maya king.

Shield Jaguar the Great and Lady Xok of Yaxchilan. The powerful family of his important wife, Lady Xok helped to keep Shield Jaguar the Great on the throne. In the picture on the mini book she is shown pulling a thorn studded rope through her tongue for a blood sacrifice as Shield Jaguar holds a torch over head.

Charles V. King of Spain. Approved the Spanish conquest of the Americas.

John Lloyd Stephens. He was an American traveler who teamed up with Frederick Catherwood to locate Maya ruins.