Ancient Greece

Ancient Rome

Cut out both pockets.

Use the information given on the next page or page 2 for each significant person in the ancient civilization or use some of your own facts and use page 3.

Fold mini books in half and glue them and store inside pocket.

Caesar Augustus

After 500 years, civil war brought the period in Roman history known as the Republic to an end and Julius Caesar's adopted son Octavian won the struggle for power. He became Rome's first emperor. He restored civil government and was given the name Imperator Caesar Augustus. He was a great leader and administrator and enjoyed the arts and literature.
Plato

Plato was a philosopher in Classical Greece. He was also a mathematician, student of Socrates, writer of philosophical dialogues, and founder of the Academy in Athens, the first institution of higher learning in the Western world. Along with his mentor, Socrates, and his student, Aristotle, Plato helped to lay the foundations of Western philosophy and science.

Caesar Augustus

Plato